- II. Kathy A. – Business checking $23,698. Moved $5k to savings (now $31854). New Year event was $200 .
- III. Old Business – 2020 budget to finalize at NNIG 3/3.
- IV. New Business:
 - A. Ed S, Northern Area GS Chair Bridging the Gap, presented program that currently is only at Bristlecone and BAS in CC: Orientation to AA. Asking Steering to incorporate or sponsor it to NNIG in some way. The cost is approximately $200/year per facility for materials. Steering thinks might be part of H&I. Ed to return on 2/25 meeting with the Treatment Chair to discuss.
 - B. A member asked about the management of the New Years event; food was cold and seating was inadequate. i Steering advises that the NY Committee is aware of the issues and will address before next year's event at first committee meeting.
 - C. Central Office is running well and is fully staffed with volunteers.
- V. Meeting closed with Declaration of Unity 6:00 P.M.
