Treasurer's report:

Contributions to March Date: Individual $864, Contributions, Group $6286, $4800 Merch Sales, Net Income $2107, YTD is $67.

Old Business:

- 1) Pat B request is denied for money for prison meeting travel. We don't have budget at NNIG and NAGS did not either.
- 2) Virtual meetings Ronda has resolved as the Secretaries are answering emails with info.
- 3) Ronda and staff still working on Tax Preparation.

New Business:

- 1) Speaker Meeting: June has no Speaker, July has no host or Speaker. Chad time is up, Ronda will follow up with Chad what is covered and get The Row contacts.
- 2) Don presented concern Pink Can fund is at $4278. Discussion: Ronda talked to Area Corrections to talk with Lexi about what to do next, training. Also check with Colleen to see if she is in contact with Lexi. Tom E. and Regina have gotten books to take to centers. But need, by Traditions, to address the funds accumulating.
- 3) Alanon Books: Should we sell books at CO? We do not sell any other anonymous group (ex: NA, OA). Consensus we will not sell them at CO.
- 4) Talk to Kris H. regarding radio spots-PSAs.

Reports: Central Office:

- 1) Answering Service may go to pay phone Access transfer process.
- 2) Had the office staff meeting: All employees are either 1st shot vaccinated or in planning. All trained again on Quik Books.
- 3) Working with Insurance for new, renewal at Hartford is not possible.

Meeting closed at 5:50 with the Responsibility Pledge.
