GENERAL WARRANTIES OF THE NORTHERN NEVADA INTERGROUP ASSOCIATION OF ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

In all its proceedings, the Intergroup Association observes the spirit of AA Traditions, taking great care that the Intergroup Association never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds, plus a reserve be its prudent financial principal; that none of the Intergroup Association members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others; that all important decision be reached by discussion, vote and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that no Intergroup Association action ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy; that though the Intergroup Association may act for the service of AA Groups in the Northern Nevada area and parts of Northern California, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous, the Intergroup Association itself will always remain democratic in thought and action.

(The above is adapted and modified from "The AA Service Manual", and AA Co-Founder Bill W's. Twelve Concepts for World Service; Concept XII, as adopted by the General Service Conference on April 26, 1962. This adaptation of copyrighted AA material has been approved by the General Service Board)

PRINCIPLES AND PERSONALITIES

Keep your eye on the principle and don't let the personality bug you

My name is Joe C. I have been sober four years now, and the last three have been happy years, though the first was miserable. I never want to live through that year again, and, if I don't pick up that first drink, I won't have to.

Recently, an AA friend of mine got drunk. I was crushed! He had been sober for two years. I liked him. We were friends. I had a lot of faith in him. Too much! I took his slip personally. It really bothered me. He came back to the meetings after the drunk, but his attitude had changed. We spoke together after the meetings, but it wasn't the same.

My feelings were deeply hurt. I got mad at him for letting me down. I didn't for one minute consider his feelings--his guilt, remorse, heart-sickness. I thought not of his wife, children, or father. I dwelled only on my own hurt. What self-centeredness and ego!

Since that time and after much deliberation, I understand the meaning of "principles before personalities." My friend's misfortune has helped me gain greater insight into the AA philosophy, I hope.

I must never again allow personalities to play so large a role in my sobriety.

"General Warranties of the Conference: in all its proceedings, the General Service Conference shall observe the spirit of the A.A. Tradition, taking great care that the conference never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, be its prudent financial principle; that none of the Conference Members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others; that all important decisions be reached by discussion vote and whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that no Conference action ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy; that though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action..."

The Bracer is a monthly publication intended for members of Alcoholics Anonymous and their families only. It is about, by and for members of the fellowship. Opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of A.A. as a whole or NNIG. For article submissions or comments, email the Editor at nnigbracer@gmail.com. Deadline for submission is the last Friday of the month.

Concept XII General Warranties of the Conference: in all its proceedings, the General Service Conference shall observe the spirit of the A.A. Tradition, taking great care that the conference never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, be its prudent financial principle; that none of the Conference Members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others; that all important decisions be reached by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that no Conference action ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy; that though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action.

This Concept consists of the General Warranties of the General Service Conference. It is cast in stone; that is, although Bill leaves the door open for alterations and changes in the other Concepts and points out that the rest of the Conference Charter "can be readily amended," these General Warranties — like the Twelve Steps and the Twelve Traditions — be changed only by "written consent of threequarters of all A.A. groups" in the world! Why? Because "these Warranties indicate the qualities of prudence and spirituality which the Conference should always possess These are the permanent bonds that hold the Conference fast to the movement it serves." The Warranties also express spiritual principles which apply to all other A.A. entities as well. Let us, then, consider these principles one by one: Warranty One: "The Conference shall never become the seat of perilous wealth or power." The Seventh Tradition protects us against the accumulation of too much money. So long as we refuse to take outside contributions and limit individual member's donations, "we shall not become wealthy in any perilous sense." And if we live by Tradition Two — that "our ultimate authority is a loving God" and that "our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern" — then we are safe from perilous power. Warranty Two: "Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample Reserve, should be its prudent financial principle." Although many of us as active alcoholics were free spenders, when it comes to supporting "A.A. service overhead, we are apt to turn a bit reluctant." Yet, in A.A. the cost of the service office is relatively low in terms of the number of groups served, and if the need for support is made clear, the contributions are forthcoming. The Reserve Fund should be one full year's operating expenses of the G.S.O. and Grapevine. The Reserve Fund comes almost entirely from income from the sale of A.A. literature, which also is used to make up the deficit between group contributions and the cost of group services. Warranty Three: "None of the Conference members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others." This principle is discussed earlier in Concept IV, but "it is so important, we have made it the subject of this Warranty" — a "strong stand against the creation of unqualified authority at any point in our Conference structure." Warranty Four: "That all important decisions should be reached by discussion, vote, and wherever possible, by substantial unanimity." This Warranty is, on the one hand, "a safeguard against any hasty or overbearing authority of a simple majority; and, on the other hand, it takes notice of the rights and the frequent wisdom of minorities, however small. This principle guarantees that all matters of importance, time permitting, will be extensively debated, and that such debates will continue until a really heavy majority can support every critical decision." Warranty Five: "That no Conference action shall ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy." Although practically all other societies and governments find it necessary to punish individual members for violations of their beliefs, principles or laws, Alcoholics Anonymous finds this practice unnecessary. When we fail to follow sound spiritual principles, alcohol cuts us down. No humanly administered system of penalties is needed. This unique condition is an enormous advantage to us all, one on which we can fully rely and one which we should never abandon by resorting to personal attack and punishment. Of all societies, ours can least afford to risk the resentments and conflicts which would result were we ever to yield to the temptation to punish in anger. For much the same reason, we cannot and should not enter into public controversy, even in self-defense. Our experience has shown that, providentially, A.A. has been made exempt from the need to quarrel with anyone, no matter what the provocation. Nothing could be more damaging to our unity and to the worldwide goodwill which A.A. enjoys, than public contention, no matter how promising the immediate dividends might appear. Some situations which may require Conference consideration are: A.A. may come under "sharp public attack or heavy ridicule" — perhaps "With little or no justification in fact. Our best defense in these situations would be no defense whatever — namely, complete silence at the public level. If the criticism of A.A. is partly or wholly justified, it may be well to acknowledge this privately to the critics — with our thanks." Public violations of A.A. Traditions. Our own members may try to use the A.A. name for their private purposes. "Aggressive or punitive action, even in this area, must be omitted. Privately, we can inform Tradition-violators that they are out of order. When they persist, we can use such other resources of persuasion as we have. In the long run, though, we shall have to rely mainly on the pressures of A.A. opinion and public opinion." "Another kind of problem is the severe internal disagreement that comes to unwelcome public attention." As G.S.O. "is not a police operation," we can only offer A.A.'s experience as a matter of information. Warranty Six: "That though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action." The A.A. Traditions accord the individual member and the A.A. group extraordinary liberties. In fact, we A.A.s probably enjoy more and greater freedoms than any Fellowship in the world. We claim this as no virtue. We know we have to choose conformity to A.A.'s Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions or else face dissolution and death. "Because we set such a high value on our great liberties and cannot conceive that they will need to be limited, we here specially enjoin our General Service Conference to abstain completely from any and all acts of authoritative government which could in any way curtail A.A.'s freedom under God. We expect our Conference always to try to act in the spirit of mutual respect and love — one member to another. "Freedom under God to grow in His likeness and image will ever be the quest of Alcoholics Anonymous. May our General Service Conference be always seen as a chief symbol of this cherished liberty."

Drink Like A Fish

by Rick M.

Interview with an Alcoholic

Please introduce yourself. Hi my name's Don Mc.

What is your sobriety date? 8/5/1987

What is your home group? My home group is the A Way Home Group at present.

Where did you get your sober? Springfield Missouri.

Please briefly describe your drinking. I drank only alone or with someone.

What brought you to Alcoholics Anonymous?

Well, I was introduced here by the court system of the state of Missouri after acquisition of numerous DUI's. I either had to come and get court papers signed or I could face consequences.

What were your first impressions of Alcoholics Anonymous? Wasn't sure what to expect, they were held in the backrooms and basements of churches and such you know I knew they were going to talk about God, but none the less, I was totally surprised because I kept hearing the same jokes I heard in the bar but yet the same gossip I heard in church, strange combination yet I felt at home.

What did the long timers tell you in the beginning? Don't drink, don't think. Go to meetings, read the big book call your sponsor and pray your *** off and keep coming back.

What was the hardest suggestion for you to follow? The hardest thing was to actually do 90 meetings in 90 days but my sponsor told me to call him every day, so I did until he told me not to call him every day. I've found that over time that I was making a meeting not necessarily in the conventional sense but yet while I was talking to another alcoholic, I was having another meeting about Alcoholics Anonymous.

What was the easiest?

I got suckered into keep coming back.

When did you come to Reno?

I arrived in Reno on April 17, 2017.

What do you like about Reno A.A.? Or is there anything different? It's really no different from any other place I've been necessarily. I moved here from Alaska I was up there for almost 3 decades. It's still the concept of willing to go to any length. I still adhere to that the best I can, to this day.

What do you tell newcomers today? I try not to tell them anything. I don't want to spoil the surprise but when they do ask I try and do what sponsorship has told me over the years, that is; Do they need help? - Question one. Do they want help? - question two. Are they asking for help? - question three. Are they asking me for help? - question four.

What positive changes or evolutions have you seen in A.A. during your sobriety? Well with the recent Covid-19 outbreak Zoom meetings were just not even thought of, but now they are prolific. It's a new avenue in Alcoholics Anonymous to explore I can see now that the possibility of hybrid meetings coming more to the forefront more all the time. But yet I will admit I prefer the old school standards. A real meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous.

What's your favorite part of the big book or saying?

And acceptance is the answer to all my problems today when I'm disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing, or situation- some fact in my life- unacceptable to me. can find no serenity till I accept that person place thing or situation exactly where it's supposed to be at this moment nothing absolutely nothing happens in God's world by mistake until I can accept my alcoholism I cannot stay sober. Unless I accept life completely on life's terms I cannot be happy. I need to concentrate not so much on what needs to be changed in the world as what needs to be changed in me and by attitudes.

Do you have any final thoughts?

Don't drink without me.
