Vice-Chair-Eryn. No report.

Chairperson- Don D.

Gratitude Dinner Al-anon Speaker - a member expressed concern about having Al-anon speaker at NNIG Gratitude Dinner. Discussion included consideration of Traditions 5, 6 and 7. Committee had discussion and vote; recommended to not have Al-anon speaker because it is an NNIG event. Articles of Incorporation for NNIG, Article 2.1 suggests that we follow the Traditions, Al-anon is considered an outside enterprise.

Members have requested to attend and speak at next Committee meeting.

Suggestions: have Al-anon speaker before opening AA Meeting;

Representatives should discuss with their groups

Old Business

Discussed The ERC(employee retention credit) Money totaling $33,917 and how to spend it. Don discussed Ronda declining a bonus. Four options have been proposed. 1 Moving Would require an ad-hoc committee formed to search for a property and bring back options. 2. CD investment 3. Prudent reserve savings account. 4. Public Information.

Vote: 24 Voting Members

1. Moving Central Office - 18

2. CD Investment - 3

3. Savings Account - 2

1 Abstention

Ad-Hoc Committee will explore cost/feasibility and could recommend change in plans.

Volunteers sought to be on Ad Hoc Committee

Minority Opinion - Ron - Groups will reduce contributions to NNIG. Cost of new facility will be too high

New Business- Operating Procedures: in election positions that no longer exist were removed from list of positions. Chip proposed to close, 2 Shelley, closed at 8:10p.m.
